

Potential Partners in Nicaragua

	Institutions	Type of Organization	Contact Person	Gender Expertise	Comments
1	Agronomical Research and Teaching Center- CATIE (Is in the process of becoming an official partner)	Research and teaching center	Gusnara Bustos Webpage: http://catie.ac.cr/ Email: gbustos@catie.ac.cr	Masters in Gender and Development- Gender specialist.	Focused in developing the gender component in Farmer Field Schools and milk value chain analysis.
2	National Agrarian University-UNA (Is in the process of becoming an official partner)	Superior education center	Marina Ulmos Webpage: http://www.una.edu.ni/ Email: mariulmos@gmail.com	Experience in gender research and mainstreaming.	The UNA has a campus in Camoapa, one of the L&F sites. With Marina's gender mainstreaming experience, she could involve technicians and students from Camoapa in gender work.
3	Nitlapán	Research and development institute	1. Selmira Flores 2. Carolina Medina  Webpage: http://www.nitlapan.org.ni/site/es/ Email: selmiraf@gmail.com cmedolim@yahoo.com	1. Gender specialist 2. Experience in field work with producers and some gender experience.	Selmira is a gender expert with many years of research experience and publications on gender.  Carolina works with farmers in business development and has gender research experience.
4	Heifer	Community Development International organization	Marcio Montiel and Ixchel Palencia  Webpage: http://www.heifer.org/ Email: ixchel.palencia@heifer.org	None identified	The national interim director and the regional program officer attended to the gender workshop and expressed their interest in including gender in their work developed in

			Marcio.montiel@heifer.org		Nicaragua.
5	Catholic Relief Services CRS	Humanitarian development agency	Ligia Corrales  Webpage: http://crs.org/nicaragua/ Email: Ligia.corrales@crs.org	Gender specialist	CRS and CIAT have worked together in previous projects and are developing actions with milk value chain actors.
6	Instituto Nicaragüense de Tecnología Agropecuaria INTA	Research and technological innovation governmental institution	Sara Obregón  Webpage: http://www.inta.gob.ni/ Email: sobregon@inta.gob.ni	Gender specialist	A partnership with INTA can only be achieved from a direction level, but not directly with Sara Obregón.
7	Asociación para el Desarrollo Municipal ADM	Local development organization in Camoapa	Ivania Ampié  Webpage: http://www.admnicaragua.org/es/Asociacion/quienessomos.html Email: ampiebarciai@yahoo.es	Field experience working with women involved in cattle and milk production. Supporters of GRUMIC (see below)	Identified during gender actors mapping. They are financed by Sant Just Solidari , a spanish NGO working with development projects.
8	Grupo de mujeres para la incidencia del municipio de Camoapa GRUMIC	Organized women's group	Jasmina Miranda	Local group of women organized for social advocacy.	Supported by ADM
9	Radio Camoapa	Community Radio	Raúl Martínez  Webpage: http://www.radiocamoapa.com/ Email: delatierra@radiocamoapa.com	No gender expertise	Also supported by ADM and open to include gender in community radio programs.